ABOUT INVESTMENTS.

Few people seem to realize the significance of a "profitable" investment.

The public are to be congratulated that the many "catchponny" concerns and assessment esociations that have made rash promises and shown glowing results (on paper) are daily going into innocuous desuctude. These have flexced cousands who were foolish enough to believe their improbable statements.

There doesn't exist a better sage investment than our 5 per cent Debenture. Bonds and our 6 per cent Real Estate Notes. Both are absolutely guaranteed end crofitable.

THE IMPRISONED PASSENGERS. A Portion of Sandy Hook Allotted to Their

Now comes President Harrison to the rescue

to the health officers of New York. The War Department today directed the use of a portion of Sandy Hook as a station of refuge for the cabin passengers of the quarantined steamships in New York bay.

This action was taken as a result of the strennous efforts of Secretary Charles Foster and passengers and a release from their dangerous proximity to cholera in the infected ships.

The War Department shipped 400 army tents, borrowed from the G. A. R., by fast express over the B. and O. railroad today to Sandy Hook. The tents will be replaced by a ship-ment from St. Louis at once if the G. A. R. committee decides that they will be needed. Gen. Grant said that a telegram had been received, after consent had been given for the occupation of the Hook, from the President at Loon Lake, in which he stated that in his judgment the request of Secretary Foster for tempo-rary use of the land should be granted. From the telegrams which passed between Gen. Grantand Secretary Foster it will be seen that the War Department opposed loaning the government reservation, unless in a case of extreme neces-sity, because of the great interference with the work of the ordnance and engineer's bureaus now going on at the proving station which would follow the transfer of a large number of per-sons from the steamers. Besides it was urged by the ordnance bureau that great danger to life would result through the testing of guns and the proximity of powder and other high explosives in the magazines now on the island. However, the lower end of the Hook which However, the lower end of the Hook which is loaned is some distance from the dangerous point. The proving grounds will be the site given for the use of the temporary camp, and it is expected that for a time all work at the proving ground will have to be suspended to insure perfect safety to those ashore. This necessarily means great interruption to the important ordnance work now going on at the station, but the government will have to delay it for a time.

The following is the correspondence that has

Sec. of War, Washington:

Health officer 1 taken place on the subject:

Health officer has agreed to examine grounds at Sandy Hook government reservation under control your department reservation under control your department as place for temporary refuge camp for health cabin passengers from ships now detained at quarantine. I strongly recommend this course, as their situation is perflous. No sickness will be retained in camp, but removed to Swinburne's Island. Please instruct commanding general this department to give temporary use of reservation if neces-CHARLES FOSTER.
Under the same date Secretary Foster also sent the following: "If department consents to occupation of Sandy Hook temporary barracks will be immediately constructed. As before stated these will be used only for passengers. Meantime if 500 army tents could be loaned we might secure immediate transfer. If shipped please direct quartermaster to ship by express or special train Baltimore and Ohio to Staten Island direct to Health Officer Jenkins." The following telegram from New York, under date of the 8th, was sent by Secretary Tracy: "Did you receive Foster's telegram about use of Sandy Hook and tents sent last night. Im-rapidly as needful.

A temporary suspension of work at the proving ground would soon partially suspend work at the construction establishments and eventually suspend it entirely.

A detachment of troops and about 100 civilians are engaged in these trials and reside on the reservation. Such use as that proposed would make it necessary to remove all these people and would leave valuable machinery and large quantities of powder and high explosives
